Dear Parent
Pranam!

Greetings to all in the blessed month of Ramadan!

The year 2016 is a landmark year in the history of Salwan Education Trust as it strides into its 75th year. The Platinum Jubilee Celebrations of Salwan Education Trust unfold the Trust's glorious service and assure the world of greater thinking and evolution.

Platinum Jubilee Celebrations of Salwan Education Trust commenced with a Mahayagya in the month of April with resounding recital of the Vedic verses, seeking divine blessings for all Salwanians. The programme was attended by the students from the Salwan schools, their parents, alumni and other eminent and respectable citizens of India. Salwanians got the unique opportunity to learn and connect with India's rich traditions and culture through the sublime ceremony of the yagya.

Upholding the spirit of 'Building Nation through Education', Salwanians are now going to celebrate the supreme observance, 'Ibadat-e-Ramadan' on 4th July 2016 to revere the secular spirit of India.

Ramadan is the holy month of fasting and developing self-control as well as kindness. It is also a time of comprehensive thanksgiving and charity, helping others who are less fortunate and for bonding with family and friends by breaking fast together, praying in congregation, and conducting special educational meetings.

It was in the holy month of Ramadan that revelations of the 'Quran' first began to be made to Prophet Muhammad. The essence of Ramadan is to provide spiritual nourishment to the soul so as to raise the human being to higher realities.

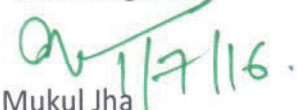

In the special programme 'Ibadat-e-Ramadan' the students of Salwan Schools will plant 75 fruit bearing trees in their campuses. The programme will begin with a 'Dua'. This will be followed by narration of the story of Ramadan through 'Dastangoi', the ancient art of Urdu storytelling, where the 'Dastangos', or storyteller, orally recreates the 'dastan' or the story. The programme has been prepared and executed by the Students.

Transition from the world of storytelling to the world of learning will be steered by Shri Syed Asif Ibrahim, an eminent and learned speaker on Islamic studies, who will also interact with the students.

We earnestly pray that God Almighty may increase our piety, sincerity and steadfastness during this holy month and bring us all closer to each other. We pray to God to enhance our spirituality and to enable us to do more good deeds.

Students from classes VII-XI will enjoy the rare opportunity to attend the programme 'Ibadat-e-Ramadan' and celebrate piety of the Holy month on 4th July'16, 8.00 a.m. onwards at Salwan Public School, Rajendra Nagar, New Delhi.
